'Wild Chase' of Armed Convicted Felons in Stolen Vehicle Results in Two Arrests for Multiple Counts of Aggravated Assault on a Law Enforcement Officer, Fleeing, Grand Theft, Throwing Deadly Missile at Vehicles and Drug Charges

On Monday, October 11, 2021, the Flagler County Sheriff's Office (FCSO) received a 'Be-On-the-Look Out' (BOLO) for a white Ford F-250 traveling on State Road 100 that was reported stolen from Jacksonville, Florida.

Upon receiving the BOLO, an FCSO deputy observed the vehicle traveling west on State Road 100 and began following it waiting for other deputies to respond. Deputies then attempted to stop the vehicle by activating their emergency lights but the driver attempted to flee.

Additional units responded to the area to deploy StopSticks and were successful in flattening three tires but the vehicle continued to flee continuing onto State Road 11. While the vehicle was fleeing west on State Road 11, the driver, later identified as Shane Hendricks (DOB: 7/20/1977), began throwing tools from the driver's side window at pursuing deputies. Hendricks then climbed through a window into the bed of the truck while the passenger, later identified as Tammy Pecor (DOB: 8/15/1977) took over driving the stolen vehicle. Hendricks continued to throw tools from the bed of the truck at law enforcement, including a large blue toolbox, a stamping machine, a sledgehammer while the vehicle continued west on SR-11 trying to avoid apprehension. The stolen vehicle finally came to a stop and deputies conducted a high-risk traffic stop. Both Pecor and Hendricks were tactically removed from the vehicle and secured.

During a search of the stolen vehicle deputies located a brown leather bag with a loaded semiautomatic firearm, a scale covered with white residue, a straw lined with a white crystalline substance, a cutting board, methamphetamine, and cocaine. It was later determined the license plate and the vehicle were reported stolen from Jacksonville.

“This was a wild and one of the most bizarre chases I have seen in my career,” said Sheriff Rick Staly. “These dirtbags, with their long criminal histories, thought it was a good idea to throw tools at our deputies and flee rather than surrender peacefully. Maybe they have watched too much TV and were making a movie. They did. One that a judge will see! Thankfully none of our deputies or anyone else was hurt by their actions. If you assault a Deputy Sheriff and flee we will get you and you will still go to jail but with a lot more charges. In this case, their flight ended at the Green Roof Inn.”

Shane Hendricks was arrested and transported to the Sheriff Perry Hall Inmate Detention Facility. He was arrested for Violation of Probation, Fleeing and Eluding Law Enforcement Officers with Lights and Sirens on, multiple counts of Throwing a Deadly Missile at Vehicles, Petit Theft, multiple counts of Reckless Driving, Possession of a Firearm by a Convicted Felon, Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, multiple counts of Aggravated Assault on a Law Enforcement Officer, Driving While License is Suspended with Knowledge, and Assault on a law enforcement Officer. Hendricks is being held on no bond.
